

WEEK 2_REFLECTION

I learned how to use the HTML5 elements and attributes to create a webpage to be well organized, functional, and creative. My challenges are the semantic elements to put it into a webpage and arranging it to become attractive and organize. I solve it by testing the webpage in the browser and seeing what need to be fixed. My improvement is to make it better and designing the website and improving the semantic structure.